United Nations ST/IC/2011/18

Secretariat

21 June 2011

Information circular*

To: Members of the staff

From: The Assistant Secretary-General for Human Resources Management

Subject: United Nations sabbatical leave programme for 2012

1. The purpose of the present information circular is to invite staff to apply for the sabbatical leave programme in 2012 in accordance with the provisions of administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/1 of 23 March 2011.

Eligibility

2. Administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/1 defines the conditions under which staff members may be granted sabbatical leave. For purposes of eligibility for the 2012 sabbatical leave programme, section 2 of instruction ST/AI/2011/1 provides that the programme is open to United Nations staff members who, at the time of application, have completed five years of service with the Secretariat within the last six years and are expected to serve with the Secretariat for no less than two years after completion of the sabbatical leave, subject to staff rule 4.13 (c).

Selection of institution

3. Interested staff members are responsible for identifying the institution or organization in which they propose to carry out their research or study project and for securing their acceptance by that institution or organization. In addition to universities and independent institutions worldwide, including participating research and training centres of the United Nations University and institutions that are members of the Academic Council on the United Nations System, research or study projects may also be pursued in other relevant organizations and institutions. Staff members may wish to consult the list of institutions that are members of the Academic Council on the United Nations System contained in annex II to the present circular, the list of participating research and training centres of the United Nations University contained in annex III and other participating institutions contained in annex IV.

* Expiration date of the present information circular: 31 December 2012.

Application procedures

4. Each application must include the following documents:

(a) Application form contained in annex I to the present circular;

(b) Proposal describing the research project;

(c) Written endorsement by the head of department or office or chief of mission support responsible for the work of the applicant during the proposed research or study project;

(d) Two signed letters of recommendation;

(e) Written correspondence on potential acceptance from the proposed sabbatical institution.

5. As part of the "Greening the United Nations" initiative, all applicants are encouraged to submit all of the above documents electronically. Applicants from offices away from Headquarters should submit applications through their respective head of department or office or chief of mission support. Applicants from United Nations Headquarters can submit applications directly to the Office of Human Resources Management with all supporting documentation. All applications should be directed to Bernadette Mutirende (mutirende@un.org). Applicants at mission locations or duty stations where the Internet is not adequately available can submit paper applications via their head of department or office or chief of mission support to the Officer-in-Charge, Sabbatical Leave Programme, Room M-14038A, Learning, Development and Human Resources Services Division, Office of Human Resources Management, United Nations, New York, NY 10017. All applications should be received by 28 October 2011. For offices away from Headquarters, applications received directly from applicants will not be considered.

6. The proposal, which should not exceed four pages, should contain the following information:

(a) Title of the research or study project;

(b) Field of the research or study project;

(c) Rationale for the research or study project;

(d) Relationship of the research or study project to the work of the individual and to the work of the Organization;

(e) Outline of topic(s) to be covered;

(f) Study or research activities;

(g) Detailed methodology;

(h) Schedule of work of the research or study project, with an indication of any preparatory work already accomplished;

(i) Usefulness of the expected outcome of the research or study project and its practical implications for the individual and the Organization.

7. Applicants should indicate in the application form the name and address of the institution or organization in which they wish to carry out their research or study project, specifying the type of support services and facilities that the institution or organization is prepared to provide during the period of the sabbatical leave.

8. All proposals will be evaluated by a selection committee on the basis of the criteria set out in administrative instruction ST/AI/2011/1. The terms of the proposal shall be binding for the staff member. Late or incomplete applications will not be considered; there will be no exceptions. Applicants should review and check the appropriate boxes on the application checklist contained in annex V to the present information circular before submitting an application.

9. Each applicant and his/her head of department or office or chief of mission support will be informed of the decision of the Selection Committee regardless of the result of the application. The selected staff members will be requested to accept in writing the specified conditions of the award.

10. The application form contained in annex I is also available online in English and French (United Nations Intranet — Forms) as form P.298 (9-10)-E or (10-10)-F (the English version is annexed).
